The tanker sustained considerable external damage on starboard side from large calibre shells fired from the deck-mounted guns. Internal damage to the tanker was limited on account of it being in ballast and the projectiles missing sensitive areas of the ship. All but one of its 59 member crew escaped unhurt. The injured sea-man who suffered serious burns and a fracture was evacuated off-shore for immediate medical attention. The estimated cost of repairs of the ship will be about Rs. 15.6 lakhs.

(b) if so, whether the request has since been considered; and
